DECLARATION OF DOROTHY JENKINS

1. I am a receptionist employed by the law firm of OSTROLENK, FABER, GERB and SOFFEN (OFGS). Among my duties are to arrange for collection of outgoing Express Mail packages by the U.S. Postal Service.

2. On August 3, 2000, at the request of Maria Lapitan, a secretary at OFGS, I signed an Express Mail Certificate printed on a Transmittal Letter for a new patent application. Exhibit 1 to this Declaration is a copy of the Transmittal Letter with the Express Mail Certificate bearing my signature.

3. Later that day, I received a sealed Express Mail Envelope from Ms. Lapitan. Without opening the envelope, I placed it for collection by the U.S. Postal Service.

4. At no time did I remove anything from the envelope.

I declare that all statements made herein of my own knowledge are true and were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of title 18 of the United State Code and that such willful statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any patent issued thereon.

Dated: October 26, 2000
